

in association with

Hollywood Transition Town

Transitioning: Food into the Future

Tuesday 24th March 2009

09:15 – 15:00

Public Library, 86-88 High Street, Hollywood, BT18 9AE

PROGRAMME

- 09.15 Registration – Tea, coffee and biscuits.
- 09.40 Welcome and Introduction – Sue Christie, NIEL.
- 09.45 Keynote address – Why we Need Transitioning – Rob Hopkins, Transition Town Totnes (Via CD).
- 10.00 Hollywood – Northern Ireland's First Transition Town – Sacha Workman, Hollywood Transition Town.
- 10.20 Local Food – the Scottish Experience – Mike Small, The Fife Diet Group.
- 10.45 Break – Tea, coffee, local scones and jam.
- 11.10 Organic Agriculture – Patrick Holden, The Soil Association.
- 11.40 My Kitchen Audit – John McCormick, The Soil Association.
- 12.10 Opportunities for Food Production in NI – DARD Speaker TBC.
- 12.30 Lunch.
- 13.30 Community Gardens and Allotments – Andy Halliwell, The Organic Centre.
- 14.00 Transitioning in a Recession. Personal experiences of two Hollywood families putting the theory into practice.
- 14.30 Discussion and Panel Questions.
- 15.00 Close.